

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure "on right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak and ailing nerves of these organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fall then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days' test will surely tell! Sold by all dealers.

The Marcossan Recital.

The recital in Murrell auditorium Tuesday evening by Sol Marcossan, the great violinist, assisted by Mrs. Sol Marcossan, pianiste, was artistically one of the most successful musical entertainments ever given in Lexington, though the audience was of only fair size on account of the cold weather. The hearers, however, were unusually appreciative and felt abundantly repaid for attending.

Mr. Marcossan more than sustained the impression he created here last winter. He is indeed fortunate in having such a magnificent accompanist in his wife. The perfect sympathy and unity between these two produces a perfect condition for concert violin playing. Moreover Mr. Marcossan is not restricted in his selections, as he would be playing with any other accompanist. Many who attended the recital declared it the most pleasing that they had ever heard.

It is the quality of tone which makes Mr. Marcossan's playing truly great. There is never the slightest trace of roughness and his harmonies are not surpassed by anybody. It would be difficult to select the most pleasing number on the program. Every one received hearty applause and it was necessary for Mr. Marcossan to play four encores.

Mrs. Marcossan, who played the second group alone, was exceedingly well received as a soloist, though her unsurpassable accompaniments won for her the most praise.

The program follows:

Concerto, E minor.....Mendelssohn
Etude mignonne.....Schubert
Barcarolle.....Rubinstein
Sch-rzetto.....Saint Saens
Chaconne (for violin alone)....Bach
Rondo Capriccioso.....Saint-Saens
Nocturne.....Chopin-Wilhelmj
Zephyr.....Hubay
En Bateau.....Debussy
Etude, E major.....Paganini
Souvenir de Moscow.....Wienlawski

The encores were Dvorak's Humoreske, Drigo's Serenade, the Joachim arrangement of the Fifth Hungarian Dance by Brahms and "Souvenir" by Drdla.

After the recital Miss Pileher, to whom the credit is due for arranging the entertainment, gave a delightful informal reception in her rooms for Mr. and Mrs. Marcossan.

Mrs. Gibson entertained them Wednesday at lunch. Mr. Marcossan, who is visiting director of violin at the college, instructed the pupils in his department Wednesday.

Van Vleck-Campbell.

At six o'clock Monday evening Mr. Lee M. Van Vleck and Miss Elaine Campbell, both of whom are visiting at the home of Miss Campbell's grandfather, Thomas Campbell, east of town, were quietly married at the home of Rev. R. B. Briney, pastor of the Christian church. The wedding was informal and was witnessed by only Miss Madge Hill and Mrs. Briney. While the many friends of the bride and groom had a strong suspicion of their engagement, the wedding came as a complete surprise.

Mr. Van Vleck is a most prepossessing young man, of excellent character and high ambitions. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Campbell and was reared and educated in Lexington. With her parents she moved last year to Anderson, Missouri, where she met Mr. Van Vleck. She is an extremely estimable young lady possessed of beauty and many accomplishments. Mr. Van Vleck is indeed to be congratulated on his securing so rare a helpmeet.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleck returned to the Campbell farm. They expect to leave this evening for a wedding trip. Their plans for the future are not known.

Mrs. Nickell Sells Her Hotel.

Last Friday Mrs. M. E. Nickell sold her hotel property on Main and Broadway to D. C. Morris for $25,000.00. In exchange Mrs. Nickell gets the Morris property, corner of Eighteenth and Washington avenue for $5,000.

The Nickell home has long been famous among the traveling fraternity as a very desirable hotel to reach. The home like comforts of room and table which have always been under the personal supervision of Mrs. Nickell and her daughter, Miss Ella, made for the hotel an enviable reputation.

"I built the hotel twenty years ago," said Mrs. Nickell this morning, "and have been negotiating with Mr. Morris for nearly two years for its sale which we closed yesterday. The sale was made direct to Mr. Morris and we will give him possession Monday November 22."

It will be very gratifying to the people in Lexington that the property is still in good hands. Mr. Morris is a genial and courteous gentleman and will undoubtedly prove a worthy successor to Mrs. Nickell. His wide acquaintance and extensive travels will prove of great benefit to him in his new undertaking.

Commercial Club Elects Officers.

The Commercial Club met Tuesday night in the county court room and elected the following officers: President, E. N. Hopkins; First Vice-President, J. R. Moorehead; Second Vice-President, J. G. Crenshaw; Secretary, Edward Aull; Treasurer, Albert Winkler.

The nine cent roofing sale of J. R. Moorehead was a success in every particular. The amount of the sale was fully up to expectations and for the first time the people, generally, appear to appreciate how much cheaper a roofing such as he offered is than any other to be had of similar character or kind. Don't forget that I have the sole agency for this brand of roofing "Weatherproof," and that you cannot get it any other place.

You can buy roofing but can't get the same quality for the same price. The price of this class of roofing has been brought down to that level at which no one who has anything to protect from the weather can afford not to try it if not tried before and to buy it again if they have ever used it. He has a good stock left and is still offering it at lower prices than it has ever been sold for in Lexington and will continue to do so. Remember you cannot buy "Weatherproof" any where else and that it is a heavier and superior grade of roofing than any to be had. If you did not get sale of Weatherproof roofing was a howling success. He is still offering this same high grade goods at very little above the "sale" price. Remember, you will never have to pay two prices for felt roofing again in Lexington. He has set the price and made the market.
